

Signs of Zodiac

Hold on

There she walks through the city
With a cloud above her she feels like it's a pity there's no-one to love her

I know it might sound fools
But it's true
I'll sing this song for you
Cause that's all I can do

Refrain:

Hold on, there'll be another spring for you
Hold on, there'll be a sun above you
Hold on, there'll be a lover at your door soon
Hold on, hold on

She brings the sun in everyone's life
But if you're true, you see sadness in her eyes.

I know it might sound fools
But it's true
I'll sing this song for you
Cause that's all I can do

Refrain:

Hold on, there'll be another spring for you
Hold on, there'll be a sun above you
Hold on, there'll be a lover at your door soon
Hold on, hold on
