

Signs of Zodiac
Revelation

I'm going crazy, you're making me sad
The words that you said are still in my head
You put me through a nightmare
With each time you speak
But in reality you're the one who's weak

Refrain:

That's why I ain't gonna listen anymore
Infront of you I'll close the door
This is my best chance to reveal
To you the way you made me feel

Instead of telling all those unfair lies
You really should have seen into my eyes
My love for you was once so deep and strong
That's over now cause you're the wrong

I'm glad I realized the thruth
On account to this it's you who'll lose

I wont't be remembering my past
I'm walking on this new way fast
I want it spreaded all across the nation:
This is my final revelation
