

Signs of Zodiac
Silent Words

The truth is in your souls and it shows you the way
And you shall not ask, where it leads you to I've been looking for these world's aims
Cause even the muddle finds its man These world's aims

But why do we scream then although we don't want to be heard?
And why do we finally have to die when all we wanna do is live?

Refrain:

It's just like a scream and nothing but silent words

People remain silent.
Although they want to talk
Cause when you speak
The speech must be better Than the silence would have been

It's just like a scream and nothing but silent words

In the gleam, that bridges the light by darkness
I look back onto a journey that names its live
Those days were nothing but a waste of time
Burnt to death in the fire, that leads us home
